

Anwer Rizvi

Ivandale Road, Hamilton, VA 20158 Mobile: 703-629-7660

Anwer.Rizvi@iba-group.com

Founder and President IBA Molecular NA 2001-2009. Currently working as Global Sr. VP Government Affairs, Policy and Industry Relations. Founded Eastern Isotopes in 1995 and sold the company to IBA in 2001 and became the President of IBA NA. Led the company to become the largest PET network in the world.. Key Industry contributions::

- Successfully established the most productive F-18 FDG production network in the world.
- Built a 500 employee organization. Successfully made a global player.
- Envisioned and Positioned IBA to be the first company to launch its first proprietary PET Radiopharmaceutical. Completed Phase III, and the commercialization plan for a very promising Molecular Imaging agent.
- Established, IBA first Medical Advisory board focused on Molecular Imaging.
- Chaired SNM Molecular Imaging Campaign, Advanced the PET focused strategy.
- Active Director at CORAR
- Key Industry advocate for PET to gain acceptance Vs other imaging modalities
- Helping industry establish relationships with ASTRO, ASCO and NCCN for education of PET directly to referring physicians.
- Helping Industry in standardizing delivery of quality PET Imaging by providers.
- Introduced several MI technologies, focused on PET Manufacturing.
- Member, AML, SNM, CORAR, Vistage International